

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

WILTON QUASQUICENTENNIAL WEEK

JULY 8-14, 2024

WHEREAS, the city of Wilton, North Dakota, is celebrating its quasiquicentennial during the week of July 8-14, 2024; and

WHEREAS, Wilton has contributed greatly to the strength and enrichment of North Dakota throughout its 125 years; and

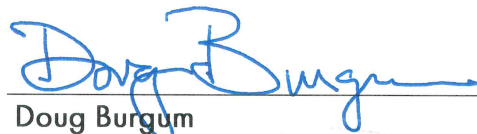

WHEREAS, in 1907, Wilton had the largest underground coal mine in the world; and coal from Wilton was shipped by railroad throughout North Dakota and the upper Midwest; and the efforts, hard work and determination of the settlers of Wilton contributed to the westward movement that brought forth and continues to bring to fruition the American ideal of opportunity for all; and

WHEREAS, the history of Wilton is inextricably woven into the historical fabric of North Dakota; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the wide variety of events and opportunities that the city of Wilton is hosting from July 8-14 to celebrate its historic anniversary with its residents, people from the county and all citizens who call North Dakota home.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim July 8-14, 2024, WILTON QUASQUICENTENNIAL WEEK in the State of North Dakota.

Doug Burgum
